SUBJECT: SPAIN RECEIVES DEMARCHE ON USG POLICY RE YEMEN

REF: SECSTATE 6940

¶1. (SBU) Post on January 25 delivered Ref demarche to GOS officials, who indicated they would ensure that the information reached the Spanish delegation to the January 27 meeting on Yemen in London. Iago Losada, Technical Adviser in the MFA's sub-Directorate General for International Terrorism Affairs, expressed appreciation for the demarche and indicated he would share the non-paper with MFA regional experts, including Director General (A/S-equivalent) Fidel Sendagorta and Deputy-DG for the Near East Alberto Ucelay. Losada also offered to send the document directly to the Chief of Staff to Foreign Minister Miguel Angel Moratinos to ensure that it reach the Minister in time. Losada said he understood that Moratinos would lead the Spanish delegation.

¶2. (SBU) Meanwhile, ECONOFF that same day delivered the demarche to Jose Maria Fernandez, Head of the Department of Cooperation with Mediterranean and Arab countries within Spain's Agency for Cooperation and International Development (AECID - Spain's USAID equivalent). Fernandez said his office primarily provides assistance to Yemen through multilateral venues due to concerns regarding the ability of the Yemeni state to deliver services to the Yemeni people.
